

Migrant Services

Supporting migrants living in the Bundaberg Region

Who We Are

Migrant Services consists of the Settlement Engagement and Transition Support (SETS) and the Community Action for a Multicultural Society (CAMS) programs which aim to help new or existing Migrants who live in the Bundaberg area and need assistance with settlement or general access to services.

Our programs are provided in a safe nurturing environment that supports the needs of multicultural communities.

Why Choose Us

We are committed to helping you build your skills and local knowledge to become an active member of the community.

We offer services that help to improve your quality of life.

We can help if you are struggling to overcome settlement and integration challenges.
